

For November 13th, you will explore several internet sites, read articles, and watch two videos. Your assignment is to read/view everything and prepare a written response. Your response should include 3 things:

- 1) Identify the common theme of all of the articles/video. Try to be as precise and concise as possible (less than 10 words). Keep in mind that these items were chosen for a particular reason, but you may identify a theme that differs from the intended one. This is perfectly acceptable and is likely to generate good discussion.
- 2) Rank the material as to how well they convey the particular theme you have identified. So, tell me what item did the best job of conveying the theme, the 2nd-best and so on.
- 3) Add in a video/article that you think would add to the theme.

The following is a list of the readings and the videos. Make sure you have read or watched all of them before you start your response.
